You will communicate with participants from all over the world and help them to successfully register for our international conferences ranging from 1,500 to 35,000 participants.

Your tasks include:
- Taking care of our national and international registration projects including preparation, follow-up, and on-site management which involves international travel
- First point of contact for our speakers and participants
- Travel management (e.g. flight bookings)
- Registration and management of individual participants and groups
- Communication with congress participants (E-mail, phone, face-to-face)
- Manage incoming payments and issue invoices as well as reminder management for unpaid registrations

Your profile:
- Successfully completed studies and/or professional training (e.g. tourism/event management) or relevant professional experience (ideally events industry)
- Strong customer and service orientation with great communication skills
- Very organised and strong attention to detail
- Willingness to take responsibility
- Performance motivation, negotiation and customer relation management skills as well as a feeling for excellent quality work
- Very good knowledge of English (native speaker level) and good knowledge of German (advanced level)
- Diversity competence
- Willingness to travel and flexibility
- Sound knowledge of MS-Office
We offer:

- An exciting position in which you can take on responsibility and further develop your career in event management
- Opportunity to travel and work in various countries and across many cultures
- Flexible working hours and flat hierarchies
- Attractive office location with very good access to public transport
- Access to various offers such as: BVG employer contribution, Urban Sports Club, etc.

If you are interested in working with K.I.T. Group, we look forward to receiving your application.
